A Native Lancasterian. Col. Jno. W. Forney having been applied to for some information regarding Hon. John W. Davis, a native Pennsylvania who arose to public distinction says of him in this week's Progress:

John W. Davis was born in Lancaster, Pennsylvania, and this is my recollection of him, and I knew him well. After completing his medical studies in Baltimore, in 1821, at the medical college there, he emigrated in 1823 to Indiana. He was the legislature of that state before and after his service in congress, and was speaker in the lower house of the legislature, and was a commissioner to make peace with the Indians. He was in Con gress from 1835 to 1837, from 1839 to 1841, and from 1843 to 1847, and was speaker of the House of Representatives during the Twenty-ninth Congress. He was minister to China in 1848, and subsequently gov ernor of the territory of Oregon. He was also president of the Baltimore Democratic national convention that nominated Franklin Pierce for president. My acquaintance with Mr. Davis was most agreeable. His personal appearance was impressive, his address easy, and his information copious. I am in hopes that this reference may invite more facts as to his life. Such men are too rare to be forgotten. J. W. Davis was a Democrat, but he belonged to a school that did not look to government as a means to make money. The Whigs of his day, like the Democrats, were honest men personally. The leaders of parties were patriots, not politicians. He was reared in the days of the Bentons, Silas Wrights, and Nathaniel Macons, and his adversaries were Whigs like Clay, Hammond and John Sargeant, statesmen who lived like gentlemen and died poor, because they spent their own money, and never touched a government dollar unless they carned it in their salaries as congressmen.

There is a general complaint that while prices of commodities have increased in some cases fifty per cent., wages have not advanced anywhere near in the same proportion. We know of no complaint in the shape of a cough, cold, sore throat, rheumatism or neuraglia that Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil will not immediately relieve. For sale by H. B. Cochran, druggist, 137 and 139 North Queen street, Lancaster, Pa.

A Fool Once More. A Fool Once More.

"For ten years my wife was confined to her bed with such a complication of allments that no doctor could tell what was the matter or cure her, and I used up a small fortune in humbug stuff. Six months ago I saw U. S. flag with Hop Bitters on it, and I thought I would be a tool once more. I tried it, but my folly proved to be wisdom. Two bottles cured her, she is now as well and strong as any man's wife, and it cost me only two dollars. Such folly pays.—II. W., Detroit, Mich.

S. Chadwick, of Arcadia. Wayne county, N. Y., writes: "I have had severe attacks of Asthurt for several years. I commenced taking Dr. Thomas' Eclectic Oil; the first dose relieved me in one hour. I continued taking it in teaspoonful doses for a few days, and have not had an attack of it since now hearly one not had an attack of it since, now nearly one year." For sale by H. B. A REMEDY WITHOUT A RIVAL for

A REMEDY WITHOUT A RIVAL for all diseases arising from Nervous Debility, Sexual Disorders, over Indulgence of Vicious Habits, as well as from the prostration of old age. Its curative properties in violent and chronic forms of the following diseases have been attested to by the most Eminent Physicians:
Dyspepsia, Self Abuse, Headache, Dizziness, Sexual Exhaustion, Spermatorrhea, General Debility, Impotency, Premature Decay, &c.
It has been in use for over forty years, and is to-day the most popular remedy for the diseases above mentioned in the WORLD. It can be used without regard to diet, is pleasant in tasts, and better than all, it is a sure, safe and certain cure. It is no quack medicine, but stands upon its own merits, as any trial wil samply demonstrate. Since 1836 this remedy has always been sold for a much larger price than that for which it is now sold; but owing to the act that the time for the payment of an enormous royalty upon its manufacture has expired, it is offered to the suffering of both sexes at one dollar per package, so as to be within the reach of all; at which price it will be sent to any address free of further charge.
